The Greenway

Grand Forks / East Grand Forks

For more information about the bikeway system in Grand Forks and East Grand Forks please call

GRAND FORKS / EAST GRAND FORKS

The flood of 1997 dramatically altered the landscape of Grand Forks and East Grand Forks. More than 50,000 people were evacuated before waters of the Red and Red Lake Rivers crested at a record high level of 54 feet. Seventy-five percent of Grand Forks and ninety-five percent of East Grand Forks were inundated with water. The cities made national headlines as eleven of Grand Forks' downtown buildings burned. To ensure that Greater Grand Forks would be protected against future flooding, the US Army Corps of Engineers proposed the construction of a flood protection system, including a Greenway, along the Red and Red Lake rivers.

The Greenway provides a unique opportunity for year-round outdoor recreational activities in the Greater Grand Forks area. With approximately 2,200 acres of open space, vegetation, and recreational amenities, there's something for everyone in the Greenway.

The Greenway

The Greenway consists of 2,200 acres lining the Red River and the Red Lake River as they flow through Grand Forks and East Grand Forks. This picturesque urban space offers countless recreational, cultural, historical and natural resource opportunities. You can hike, walk, run, rollerblade, bike, bird, canoe, kayak, fish or golf, all in the heart of our two cities. Now fully completed, the Greenway includes an all-season trail system, nature preserves, picnic sites and camping areas.

Turtle River State Park

Turtle River State Park is just 22 miles west of Grand Forks and is situated along a heavily-wooded valley. This 784-acre park is a vivid contrast to the open farmland that dominates eastern North Dakota. The river was named for the mud and snapper turtles once found in abundance in the streams. Today, the entire park is a natural sanctuary harboring an abundance of plant and animal life. The wetland is a haven for birds and migratory waterfowl. The park has 125 modern and primitive campsites, a woodland lodge and group cabins, a mountain bike trail, self-guided nature trails, fishing for rainbow trout and special programs presented in an outdoor amphitheater. Winter activities include cross-country skiing, sledding and more.
